Dr. Aisha Abd El Rahman is one of the most famous writers in Egyptian and Arab culture. She wrote many books and articles on cultural and religious matters. She also wrote poetry, and for 50 years, she wrote regularly in the newspaper Al Ahram. People admired Dr. Aisha for her courage in promoting women's rights.

Dr. Aisha was born in 1913. Her father was a well-known sheikh. Aisha used to go with him to religious meetings, where she learned to read and write. Her father was against the education of women, and her mother couldn't read or write. Her mother and grandfather persuaded Dr. Aisha's father to let her go to school. Later, she wrote under the pen-name of Bint El Shatei.

People considered it wrong for women to write in the press or take part in public life. The pen-name Bint El Shatei was taken by Dr. Aisha as a sign of respect to her father.
